WHAT IS A COMMUNITY BASED RESIDENTIAL FACILITY (CBRF)?

Assisted living sites are classified as CBRFs if the facilities are licensed by the State of Wisconsin to provide care, treatment, or services. These services need to be above the level of room and board, but not including nursing care, to five or more unrelated adults. The services in a CBRF may include meals, housekeeping, supervision of medications, laundry, dressing, and bathing assistance. Although nursing services are not required, a few facilities do offer such services. It is intended that CBRFs are as “home-like” as possible and are located in or near an individual’s community. The primary goal of a CBRF is to assist individuals in achieving the highest level of independence possible.

ARE THERE DIFFERENT TYPES OF CBRFs?

CBRFs are classified in terms of size, client group served, and class. This list of assisted living sites is primarily for older adults. Information about facilities for people with developmental disabilities, mental illness, alcoholism, or for other groups can be obtained by calling the State of Wisconsin Bureau of Quality Assurance. The size of the facility is based on the number of residents: 5-8 residents is small; 9-20 residents is medium; 21 or more residents is considered large.

THE CLASSES FOR ASSISTED LIVING SITES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

- AA            Class A Ambulatory: Residents must be ambulatory and mentally and physically capable of responding to an electric fire alarm and exiting the facility without any help or verbal or physical prompting.

- AS            Class A Semi-Ambulatory: Residents must be ambulatory or semi-ambulatory, and are mentally and physically capable of responding to an electronic fire alarm and exiting the facility without any help or verbal or physical prompting.

- A.N.A        Class A Non-Ambulatory: Residents must be ambulatory, semi-ambulatory, or non-ambulatory, and are mentally and physically capable of responding to an electronic fire alarm and exiting the facility without any help or verbal or physical prompting.

- CA            Class C Ambulatory: Residents are ambulatory but one or more are not mentally or physically capable of responding to an electronic fire alarm and exiting the facility without any help or verbal or physical prompting.

- C.N.A.        Class C Non-Ambulatory: Residents are ambulatory, semi-ambulatory, or non-ambulatory, but one or more are not mentally or physically capable of responding to an electronic fire alarm and exiting the facility without any help or verbal or physical prompting.

CONSUMER CHECKLIST

A checklist is helpful for the individual consumer, family members, friends, or guardians seeking an assisted living facility or CBRF.

- ✓ Is the facility licensed?
- ✓ Does the facility appear safe and secure?
- ✓ Is the facility clean?
- ✓ Are telephones available?
- ✓ Is there an evacuation plan?
- ✓ Is the atmosphere loving and caring?
- ✓ What level of independence is expected of residents?
- ✓ Would you want to live there?
- ✓ Are medications supervised?
- ✓ Can a resident manage his or her own medications?
- ✓ Can we choose the pharmacy?
- ✓ Is transportation to clinic appointments provided?
- ✓ Are the rooms attractive and cheerful?
- ✓ Are the rooms finished or unfinished?
- ✓ Are the rooms and bathrooms private or shared?
- ✓ What kinds of meals are served? Is there a menu?
- ✓ Are snacks available?
- ✓ Are specialized diets available? (diabetic, pureed, etc.)
- ✓ What level of personal care is provided?
- ✓ Do the managers respond to the residents?
- ✓ How are family members involved in the care?
- ✓ Are family members welcome to visit at any time?
- ✓ Are young children permitted to visit?
- ✓ Are daily activities planned? Is there an activity schedule?
- ✓ What are the monthly rates?
- ✓ Ask for a copy of the program statement, admission agreement, resident rights statement, and complaint procedure.
